Fall Fashion at Plato's Closet Creating a trendy fall outfit for less than $55.00

By Andrea Cuestas '08, Alex Fontova '08 and Katie Tumminello '09

Looking great for fall should not have to cost a fortune, which is why we took three Seven Lakes High School students to Plato's Closet to create a fall look for less.

Freshman Logan Harper, sophomore Megan Lasik and junior Fei Fei Zhang all participated in a Fall Fashion Challenge to create a fall look under $55.00.

The challenge was easy for the three Spartans due to the great prices and organization at Plato's Closet. Plus, all the trends for fall could be found there.

The top trends for fall include animal prints, cinched waists, plaid and jewel tones with added touches of red.

For both boys and girls deep earth tones of royal blues, deep oranges and sage greens are a basic start for a fashionable fall look. Wearing deep colors in the style of a polo or classic tee gives skin a deep glow, which is a plus.

After starting with a jewel tone top, add elements of plaid or metallic to your outfit. Plaid skirts and pants add a funky element along with metallic jewelry, handbags or shoes.

Also, animal prints are back for fall, especially when red is added. Jackets, shoes and handbags in leopard or tiger prints create a unique rustic look. If red is added to a purse, top or shoes, it creates a true fashion edge.

Megan Lasik and Fei Fei Zhang shop for jeans, which range in price from $10.00 to $50.00, at Plato's Closet.

Looking preppy for $38

Freshman Logan Harper found:
Lacoste polo: $20.00
Blue double sided belt: $4.00
Hollister plaid shorts: $14.00
Total: $38.00

*Logan's entire outfit cost less than the price of one new Lacoste polo!
